Soil Judging Contest at 2019 Farm Progress Show

The 2019 Farm Progress Show will host a competitive soil judging contest at its show site near Decatur, IL. The contest will be held Tuesday, August 27. The dates of the show are August 27, 28 and 29.

There is no entry fee in return for the chapter advisor to help facilitate the contest. Standard admission is required, $20 for adults, and $10 for ages 13-17. The contest will be educational in preparation for other soils contests, later in the fall.

Farm Credit Mid-America and Farm Credit Illinois are the major sponsors of the contest and provide the following monetary awards:

First Place Individual .....	$200	First Place Team .....	$400
Second Place Individual.....	$100	Second Place Team .....	$100
Third Place Individual.....	$100	Third Place Team .....	$100

Farm Progress will dig one practice pit and two ag and two homesite competition pits. Scorecards used in the Indiana State soils contest will be used in this contest. Indiana state soil contest rules will apply. Contest officials include Purdue Cooperative Extension Service, University of Illinois Extension and NRCS. The contest will begin at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, August 27, and conclude by mid-day. Teams go through the pits at their own pace. Awards will be presented at 2:00 p.m. All official judges' decisions are final.

The contest pits will be available for practice purposes on Wednesday, August 28 and Thursday, August 29. Official results from Tuesday's contest will be posted.
